Sequence

Sequence is the order in which events happen. Some words that signal sequence include before, after, first, second, last, finally, and later.

A. Read each sentence. Then write a sentence that tells what happened first. Circle the signal word or words that helped you decide on your response.

1. After Carla finished playing her piano solo, the audience burst into applause.

2. Before Bill went to bed, he finished his homework.

3. Pedro first phoned Larry to tell him the news, and later called Frank.

B. Read each sentence or pair of sentences. Then write a sentence that tells what happened last. Circle the signal word or words that helped you decide on your response.

4. The weather was sunny in the morning. Then the sky clouded up, and later the rain started to fall.

5. Fred read the directions, laid out the pieces, and finally began to build the model plane.

6. We had a picnic at the lake. Earlier, we had gone out in the rowboat.

7. Lin went out to ride his bike after he finished helping with the dishes.
